

“Head Start has helped our family learn to communicate better and to make better decisions as a family. I continue to be involved in various aspects of Head Start because I want to be a part of a great program serving our community and give back to a program that has given so much to me and my family.”

*-Chris Rotert
Children enrolled since 2007*

