

“The time I spent with Head Start was my first professional experience in the nonprofit world. While serving on the personnel hiring board, I realized my passion for human resources. Serving on various subcommittees provided real-life training to complete my education and prepare me for a professional environment.”

*-Esther Francis
Children enrolled in 2005*