

“My mother told me it was very rewarding to work with children and after volunteering in her classroom I knew this was the profession I wanted to pursue. With my mother as my first mentor in her Head Start classroom, I started my 40-year career in early childhood education.”

*-George Garrett
Head Start teacher since 1970*