

“After speaking with a Head Start staff member, I knew it was exactly where my son needed to be. In his first year, he grew emotionally and socially. He began talking more, expressing his feelings and reading. It was so much more than preschool. It was family.

*-Lori Hurla
Teacher Assistant since 2010
Son enrolled in 2008*