

“I worked as an assistant teacher for two years and later was asked if I was interested in a family advocate position. I enjoyed being a family advocate. I was able to use my native language to help parents. Twenty years later, I am honored to be an employee and Head Start parent still committed to working hard for the Kansas City Public Schools.”

*-Martha Chavez
Daughter enrolled in 1992
Head Start employee since 1994*