

“My child began Head Start as a one-year-old with a delay in speaking. Due to living in a dual-language environment, she tried assimilating two languages at the same time. By placing her in a Head Start program, I noticed immediate improvements in her language and speaking abilities.”

*-Niosha Moore
Child enrolled in 2012*