

“When my parents came to the United States, they did not speak English or have any family close by. With the help of neighbors and Head Start, my family was able to plant the important seed of education in all of us. Each one of us Head Start children have earned a college degree.”

*-Noha Shalabi
Enrolled in 1981
Head Start employee since 2012*

