

“Over the past few years, I went through such a hard time because I was homeless. My children’s Head Start teacher helped me make sure they stayed in their school. Being in this program helped me not be down about being homeless and helped me move forward with my life.”

*-Shareese Moody
Children enrolled in 2011*