

“When I went to college, I decided that I liked working with young children. After graduation, I took a job as a lead teacher in a part-day, part-year Head Start classroom. As a parent, I believed in the educational component of Head Start so much that I enrolled my daughter in our infant and toddler classroom.”

*-Betty Choi
Head Start employee since 1995*

