

“Head Start made a difference in my life because I could see what happens when people are given support and recognized as worthwhile people who can contribute to society.”

*-Betty S. Fink
Retired Head Start site director
Started working for Head Start in 1990*