MARC staff compiled the regional land use data from all available Appraisers' parcel data as of December 2008. All recent land use data changes may not be included. This map is subject to change as local governments review and edit the regional dataset. MARC has converted all local land use types to a common set of land use classes.